

Transitional Living Profile

Date: December 05, 2011

Name: Stepping Stones Sober Living Homes

General or specific location: Houses located in NE Austin for men and for women; and also a women's house located in South Austin.

Your ideal or desired resident:

Stepping Stones Sober Living Homes allow alcoholics and addicts that have a true desire to change their lives with an affordable home and close-knit fellowship with other clients. Our clients are unique adult alcoholics and addicts with motivation to their recovery and a commitment to staying sober. As such, all clients agree to remain in an active recovery program.

Size of house/layout:

Semi-private rooms housing no more than 2 residents, and private rooms are also available.

Fee structure:

$150.00 per week for a private room

$125.00 per week for a semi-private room

$125.00 Sobriety deposit

Philosophy:

At Stepping Stones Sober Living Homes, we offer clean, safe, affordable housing with all the comforts of home and the fellowship of a close-knit peer support group to all who are seeking to break the bonds of their obsession with drugs and/or alcohol.

Structure:

Structured environment with curfews imposed, sign out logs, accountability in attending meetings relating to recovery, and household chores.

Programs/Activities:

12-step meetings, after-care classes, fellowship, accountability.

While no professional or therapeutic services are provided by Stepping Stones Sober Living Homes, professional and therapeutic services are available in the local Austin area.

Contact information:

Jachael Yanez (512) 627-8038

jyanez@youraustinhouse.com

Donna Ballast (512) 845-6506

steppingstonessoberliving@gmail.com

Visit our website!

www.steppingstonessoberlivinghomes.com

References:

Austin Recovery Center

Central Texas Treatment Center

Bluebonnet Trails Community MHMR Center

Individual references upon request.

Photos:

